UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

v.

Plaintiff,

CHRISTOPHER LEE MCDERMOTT,

Defendant.

Case No. 2:15-mj-00301-PAL

ORDER

(Mot. for Detention)

This matter is before the court on the government's oral motion to detain Defendant Christopher Lee McDermott. This proceeding was referred to the undersigned pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(A) and LR IB 1-3 and 1-9. The court has considered the motion, the arguments of counsel, and the recorded materials referenced in the government's proffer.

On March 23, 2015, a Complaint (Dkt. #1) was filed against McDermott, alleging one count: Distribution of a Controlled Substance – Marijuana in violation of 21 U.S.C § 841(a)(1) and 846. On March 25, 2015, McDermott made his initial appearance, and this court held a detention hearing pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f). McDermott was present in custody with his counsel, Heather Fraley, Esq. Amber Craig, Esq., was present on behalf of the government.

In support of the motion, the government alleges there are serious risks that McDermott will not appear in court when required and is a danger to the community based in part on McDermott's recorded jail conversations. The court continued the detention hearing sua sponte until March 27, 2015, and instructed government counsel to make the materials referenced in her proffer available to defense counsel. Defense counsel opposed the motion at the continued hearing, arguing that the government overstated the content of the recorded calls. The court took the matter under advisement to review the recorded calls as the parties had widely divergent views regarding their content. The court spent an entire judicial day reviewing approximately six hours and thirty four minutes of recorded calls, which were not indexed or culled in any way. On balance, the calls do not support the government's position that McDermott is attempting to temper with witnesses or is in the process of attempting to destroy evidence. It is evident that McDermott has been aggressively attempting to raise funds to bail out of jail and is anxious about his physical condition.

After considering the totality of circumstances and the factors stated in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(g), the court finds conditions of release may be fashioned to reasonably assure McDermott's appearance in court when required and the safety of the community. Accordingly,

IT IS ORDERED:

- 1. The government's Motion for Detention is DENIED;
- 2. McDermott shall be released on a Personal Recognizance Bond with the following conditions of release:
